

HAVE YOU EVER HEARD A HORROR STORY ABOUT A WEDDING?

Unfortunately, bad things can and do happen during these happy occasions! Here are a few examples of typical losses that occur at weddings:

- Individual gets food poisoning from spoiled seafood served at the reception
- The carpet for the banquet hall is damaged when a glass of red wine is spilled
- A guest hurts her knee after slipping on a spilled drink while dancing
- An underage guest is served alcohol, then drives off and is in a car accident, injuring a passenger

Why not provide the insured with both comprehensive General Liability and Liquor Liability coverage with an affordable Special Event policy? Our policy offers food and beverage liability, medical payment coverage, damage to rented premises, and includes the property owner as Additional Insured. Separate liability limits are provided for General Liability and Liquor Liability!

These policies are not only essential for the insured, but are easy to write and do not require a signed application. Talk to your clients today about contacting you for this and all their Special Event needs.
